

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Breast cancer is on the increase, and one in every ten American women will suffer the effects of this deadly disease; and,

WHEREAS, The Junior League of Sioux Falls is sponsoring a spectacular and invaluable project called "Race for the Cure," relating to the never ending battle against breast cancer; and,

WHEREAS, For the past three years, Susan Ford Vance has been the National Spokesperson for National Breast Cancer Awareness Week, she sits on the board of the Gerald R. Ford Museum and Library, and is on the Steering Committee of the Susan G. Komen Foundation; and,

WHEREAS, In November 1987, Susan Ford Vance received the John W. Sherrick Humanitarian Award from Peralta Cancer Research Institute; and,

WHEREAS, Nancy Brinker is the founder and chairman of The Susan G. Komen Foundation for the Advancement of Breast Cancer Research, which has raised at least $4 million for research and screening of breast diseases; and,

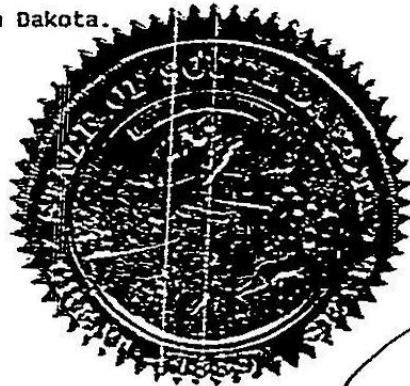

WHEREAS, Nancy Brinker is one of six lay people to serve on the National Cancer Advisory Board appointed by then President Reagan; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize these two outstanding women for their contributions in the area of breast cancer in women:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 26, 1989, as in South Dakota.

SUSAN FORD VANCE AND NANCY BRINKER DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

George S. Mickelson
GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazeltine
JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE